Our next Diploma Course in Aromatherapy, Therapeutic Massage and Anatomy & Physiology starts on April 18th, 2009. A further course commencement date is planned for October 3rd, 2009. Each Diploma Course consists of 43 days of tuition made up of weekend-based class training together with a 6-day residential session in Provence, France.

Fees: The course fee includes the return flight to France, hotel accommodation in shared rooms, most meals and travel insurance. It does not include the cost of 5 required course books (only 4 for students exempt from classes in Anatomy & Physiology). The course books are available from the Institute on the first day of the course. There is an exam fee of £95 for sitting the final Diploma examinations. It is possible to pay the deposit and course fees by credit or debit card: Credit card (but not debit card) payments are subject to a surcharge of 2% (which is waived for deposit payments).

Exemption from Anatomy, Physiology & Clinical Pathology: Students may apply for exemption from the 8 days of Anatomy & Physiology classes by submitting evidence of sufficient prior training. If you wish to claim exemption, please provide documentation such as copies of certificates showing evidence of your previous training.

Refunds: Paid deposits and course fees are in all cases non-refundable. Deposits made for courses not yet started may be transferred to the ensuing Diploma Course start date on one occasion only, with any difference in course fee applied to the outstanding balance.

Disclaimer: While the Institute's policy is one of Equal Opportunity, and while it freely embraces individuals (18 years old or older) of every race, creed and gender, it nevertheless reserves the right to refuse the application of individuals who it believes are in highly exceptional cases unsuitable for our courses of study for reasons of a medical or academic nature.
